OVER-NIGHT FEDERAL WIRELESS
To the Advertiser

The execution of Francisco I. Madero, the deposed President of Mexico, is predicted on all sides here today. Coar is laid to this belief by the fact that Madero and former Vice-President Suarez were not permitted to start for Vera Cruz this morning to catch an outgoing steamer, as had been planned.

Madero's family gathered at the station here last night prepared to catch a train for Vera Cruz. They had been told that Madero and Suarez would join them as soon as congress accepted their resignations. Neither appeared at midnight.

However, Pedro La Scurian appeared and announced that General Huerta had decided that neither Madero or Suarez should go to Vera Cruz. Senora Madero demanded to know just what this meant and La Scurian replied: "I could not learn."

Madero's family fear he will be executed.

Taking His Revenge.

Crying "Viva Mexico" as he faced the firing squad, Adolfo Basso, superior of the National Palace in the City of Mexico, was executed near the palace.

General Diaz today sent the following cable to Porfirio Diaz, who was driven from the presidency by Francisco I. Madero.

"You are avenged, Gustavo Madero is dead."

It is stated that Felix Diaz will enter the race for the Presidency of Mexico and that possibly General Huerta will not run against him. One reason, it is said, why Diaz made no effort to secure the provisional presidency for himself was his wish to be entirely free from any promises to the party in the coming campaign.

The pavilions in the famous botanical gardens around Kew Palace were fired by suffragettes at two o'clock this morning and destroyed. Lillian Lenton and Joyce Locks, militant suffragettes, were captured while trying to escape, each carrying paraphernalia for starting fires.

The walls of the palace were soaked with kerosene and shavings and cotton were piled on the floor.

Arraigned in the Richmond police court, the girls assumed a defiant stand. Miss Locks demanded her release on bail, and when this was denied threatened to start a hunger strike.

"You cannot frighten or intimidate this court," the magistrate answered. Miss Locks seized several law books and papers and hurled them at the magistrate, but he escaped unhurt.

Attendants seized and overpowered the girls, but they fought fiercely.

The artillery duel fought yesterday between the Turks and Bulgars is declared by factious to have been one of the bloodiest of modern times, surpassing in horror anything witnessed in the Russo-Japanese war.

Many high officials on both sides were among the wounded or killed. The dead included many regimental commanders and at least three brigade commanders.

Representative Kahn, chairman of the National Defence League, tonight addressed the United States War Veterans of the capital on the necessity of a big navy, army and national guard.

Kahn declared it is necessary to prepare for war in time of peace. He was cheered by the veterans, who endorsed his course in congress and his speech.

Summons to Cairo to attend J. P. Morgan, Prof. Giuseppe Bastianelli, one of the greatest specialists, will leave Rome tonight for Egypt. It was stated that his condition seems satisfactory, but that his presence was desired as a precaution.

Offers to turn state's evidence against Tammany politicians have been made by Police Inspector Dennis S. Sweeney, according to reports in New York today. Sweeney is under indictment on a charge of levying tribute from vice resorts.

King George has today donated $1000 to the fund being raised for the commitment to Captain Robert Scott and his four companions who perished during a polar expedition. The fund has now reached $100,000.

Carrying 1400 marines and two thousand rounds of ammunition for each man and three months' provisions, the United States transport Meade left League Island for Guantanamo, Cuba, today.

Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, is ill at his home in Chicago, of pneumonia according to a statement made by his physician, George Carpenter, to the United States district court today.

After an all-night fire-fight, men early today checked a conflagration which swept Kanda, Tokio's suburb, and destroyed 4000 houses. The damage is placed at $5,000,000.
